THE RAMEAU LAW FIRM
16 Court Street, Suite 2504
Brooklyn, NY 11241

AMY RAMEAU, ESQ.*
amywmrameau@hotmail.com

*Admitted in New York, New Jersey,
Eastern and Southern Districts of New York

AFSAAN SALEEM, ESQ.+
saleemlawny@gmail.com

+Admitted in New York,
Eastern and Southern Districts of New York

March 17, 2016

BY ECF
Magistrate Judge Ronald L. Ellis
United States District Court
Southern District of New York
500 Pearl Street
New York, NY 10007

Re: O'Neil Gomez v. City of New York, et. al., 13 Civ. 1822 (VSB) (RLE)

Your Honor:

My firm used to represent the plaintiff in the above-referenced action. Mr. Gomez has advised us that he no longer wishes to retain our services. We have asked him to have his new counsel contact us. They have not done so and have not filed a Notice of Appearance in this matter. Although we have also asked Mr. Gomez to provide us with their information he has not done so.

The discovery deadline had been extended to April 4, 2016. The defendants have indicated that they would like to depose plaintiff (who currently resides out of town) and the alleged complaining victim. As we have been advised by Mr. Gomez not to contact him further we are advising the Court and defense counsel of this development.

In the event, Mr. Gomez retains new counsel or a settlement or verdict is reached, The Rameau Law Firm hereby asserts a charging lien. We thank the Court for its consideration.

Sincerely,

Afsaan Saleem, Esq.

cc: Noreen Stackhouse, Esq.